

What are Lipotropics?

Lipotropic compounds are substances that help stimulate the breakdown of lipid (fat) during metabolism, and, in this way, reduce the accumulation of excess fat in the liver and other tissues. Injections of carefully calibrated doses of natural lipotropic nutrients can improve your ability to shed fat.

Abilene
1025 Cypress St.
(325) 672-7772

Enid
3925 N. VanBuren Access Rd.
(580) 242-7500

Granbury
1101 Water's Edge Rd.
(325) 668-2600

Stephenville
195 River North
(325) 668-2600

www.alexanderweightloss.com
Email: alexanderclinic@aol.com

